U. S. CHARGES SWEDEN AIDS KAISER

30: SALUTE READY FOR CITY'S BRAVE BOYS

COMMUNITY IS TO WISH GODSPEED TO SOLDIERS

Plaudits of Patriotic Thousands to Make Leave-Taking Easier for Oakland's Army Lads

BANNER WILL BE GIVEN TO WARRIORS

As in Days of Old Community Will Congregate to Bid Godspeed to Its Brave Defenders

Automobile owners who are donating their machines to-night to carry soldiers and their relations to the entraining station are requested to line up their cars on the west side of San Pablo avenue from Fifteenth street north and to be in position by 7:30 o'clock.

Soldiers and their families and friends will assemble at the main entrance to the City Hall.

At the conclusion of the brief ceremonies of farewell, megaphone orders will be given for the automobiles to drive up in order and take on the guests of honor. As each car is filled it will proceed down Washington street in the line of parade. The procession will pass down Washington to Eighth, across to Broadway and out Broadway to Sixteenth street.

Sped upon their journey by the cheers, plaudits and good wishes of thousands of citizens gathered to do them honor, the first quota of soldiers chosen in the selective draft for the new national army will leave Oakland tonight for the cantonment at Camp Lewis, on American lake, to enter upon the training that will convert them into skilled warriors for democracy. It will be the first contribution of the city to the army of liberty, and right royally will the city send them forth to Uncle Sam's service.

As it has been from time immemorial when the fighting men of a community depart, here for the protection of the common welfare, the community will express its appreciation of the sacrifice and courage of these men by assembling to bid them Godspeed. It will be a communal leave-taking, sincere in its inspiration, hearty in its expression and patriotic in its essence.

Half-past seven will be the hour and the city hall the place where the citizenry of Oakland will come together in honor of the young manhood now stepping forward in the nation's line of battle.

Mayor John L. Davie will voice the sentiments of the municipality in a brief address and will present to the quota an American flag offered as a parting gift from the City Council. Postmaster Joseph J. Rosborough will speak on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce. At the conclusion of these ceremonies automobile will draw up in order before the city hall to take on the soldiers and their families.

Headed by the fire department band, the line of cars will proceed down Washington street to Eighth street and up Broadway through lanes of humanity shouting goodbyes and farewell good wishes to the young champions of a world democracy. With this last tribute ringing in their ears they will be driven to the Sixteenth-street station to entrain with other quotas.

Automobiles for the parade are being donated by public-spirited citizens, who desire to express in a prac-

First Contingent Is Ready 76 Will Become Soldiers

A metamorphosis will this evening take place in the lives of 76 of Oakland's citizens. This morning they arose as they have done for years past just plain "Mr. Jones" or plain "Mr. Brown." Tonight when they retire they will be no longer civilians, but soldiers in the new National Army, and will be designated as "Private Jones" and "Private Brown."

These men, who will leave tonight to represent Oakland at Camp Lewis, American lake, are:

EXPLOSION IN ARSENAL

Powder, Being Compressed Into Shell, Spreads Destruction in Frankford Factory

Buildings Destroyed As Fire Carries Disaster Before It; Hospitals Filled With Injured

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Three workmen are known to have been killed and twenty-three persons badly injured in an explosion at the Frankford arsenal here early today. According to workers the explosion was accidental, there being nothing to indicate that it was caused by an outside agency. Two of the twenty-three injured are young women.

Major Montgomery, commandant of the arsenal and his aides are investigating the explosion and determine to make any statement until they have completed their inquiry. Carelessness of a workman, it was believed, was the cause of the accident.

The explosion occurred in one of three small buildings known as depots, known as the artillery assembly unit. In these there were three and six inch shells and small arms cartridges are dried. The building in question has its walls packed with powder and every precaution was taken to prevent accidents.

Fire followed the explosion and spread to several other small buildings known as the artillery assembly unit. In these there were three and six inch shells, but except workmen of arsenal employees and city firemen saved the buildings and their contents from destruction. Today's explosion was the second fatal one to occur within the past five months. Two men were killed by the bursting of a shrapnel fuse in the high explosives building last April.

The monetary loss is estimated at about $30,000. Three small buildings were destroyed together with about 80,000 detonators.

The two bodies have not been identified, one being burned beyond recognition. The others are Edward Ball and a janitor named Fox.

All the buildings were of frame construction except R. A. house No. 7, a new brick structure.

The explosion was caused by a workman's carelessness in handling powder.

HOPE FOR RUSSIA

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The newspapers today, in their comment on the forceful speech of Lloyd-George at Birkenhead yesterday, speculated at length upon that section referring to Russia.

An interesting question has been raised as to whether the Entente governments are in receipt of secret information of an optimistic character.

Premier's declaration that Russia's war aims were being realized with advice from Petrograd that the council of workers' and soldiers' delegates is now entering into the war with heart and soul, gives a more cheerful outlook to the Russian situation than it had for some time.

RELICS FOUND

U. S. REPLY TO POPE WILL BE BRITAIN'S

BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Great Britain has advised the United States that President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals is in effect Great Britain's reply, as was indicated recently in a statement by Lord Cecil.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEADERSHIP WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 8.—Representatives of the pan-Germans are planning to bring up the subject of President Wilson's peace note to the Pope when the Reichstag meets on September 26.

Despatches from Berlin today said that the Lokal Anzeiger, which is now controlled by big industrial interests, has started a campaign to induce the Reichstag to protest with a rebuke against certain parts of President Wilson's note.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Germany in her reply to Pope Benedict's peace note will agree to the complete restoration of Belgium, according to a despatch from Amsterdam, quoting the Dutch Roman Catholic newspaper Tyd. The despatch added that Germany would insist, however, that no separate agreements regarding Belgium's independence should be made.

WOULD DISCUSS NOTE.

BERLIN, Sept. 8, via London, Sept. 7.—The Roman Catholic centrist party has issued a formal statement dealing with President Wilson's reply to the peace note of Pope Benedict. In as much as the statement is now making the round of the party press, it may be taken for granted that it reflects the official view of its sponsors. It urges that the President's message, although phrased in a tone which is considered offensive, should be considered wholly in the light of its essential and objective principle.

NEW PLAN FOR PEACE.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 8.—An effort will be made to convene the international Socialist peace conference in Stockholm in November, said a despatch from Berlin today, quoting the Central Gazette, a semi-official organ.

The two members of the German Reichstag left Berlin yesterday to visit the battlefronts "to form some idea of the strategic situation of the fighting," according to the Weser Zeitung.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 8.—The Chamber of Commerce of Elbing is the latest commercial organization to join those of Berlin, Bremen, Hamburg and Lubeck in protest against peace without annexations and the note of President Wilson. The municipal government of Elbing issued a statement to the effect that "while it is true that he insisted the German people gravely and shamefully in his reply to the Pope. Only a few newspapers thus far have printed the reports from Washington stating that the American note did not necessarily mean that the elimination of the Hohenzollerns was regarded as essential to peace."

POPE DISTURBS RUSS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Pope Benedict has so disturbed Russia that this feeling "amounts to treason," according to an interview with the holy father printed today by the New York Times. The quotations were printed by the London Daily News from its diplomatic correspondent and purposed to cover a talk with the Pope some time in August.

The despatch attributed to the Pope the remark:

"What do the entente really want? What is their program? No one knows and they never show any desire to formulate it concretely."

The correspondent detailed how he explained the allied demands for disengagement and annihilation of Prussian militarism; a new Poland, division of Austria-Hungary by racial units and evacuation and indemnity of Belgium.

At this last named item the article described the Pope as lifting up his hands in astonishment and declaring, "What a program!" The concluding part of the interview was as follows, according to the correspondent:

The Pope—Russia has never been tender to Catholic interests. Look at the way they treat Catholic priests in the diocese of Lemberg and then the case of Archbishop Szapitski. It was scandalous.

The Correspondent—The Germans shot many priests in Belgium.

The Pope—Certainly, certainly! War produces horrors everywhere.

SESSION PLANNED.

DUBLIN, Sept. 8.—Excellent progress is being made by the Irish home rule convention, it was stated today on good authority. The sessions have been held at Belfast this week, but shortly they will be transferred to Cork. It is expected that there will be a sitting at London before deliberations are resumed in this city. The nationalist delegates, particularly John Redmond, have been warmly received in the unionist stronghold of the north.

Malone's Argument Complete No Add to Scolding of Wilson

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Dudley Field Malone, who resigned yesterday as Collector of the Port of New York because he did not approve of the President's stand on the suffrage question, refused today to add to his statement.

Malone, who as counsel defended the first of the militants arraigned in police court here, told the President in his letter of resignation that as much as he had promised the women of the suffrage states that he would exert all his energy to have the National Democratic Administration endorse suffrage by constitutional amendment, he felt obliged to resign and devote himself to redeeming that promise.

MALONE'S STATEMENT.

In quitting the office of collector of the port of New York, Malone leaves one of the best-paid places in the government and a son-in-law of former Senator O'Connor. His letter of resignation follows:

"Dear Mr. President: Last autumn, as the representative of your administration, I urged you to support the Federal suffrage amendment to the Constitution. I urged you to urge your re-election. The most difficult argument to meet among the 7,000,000 women voters was the failure of the Democratic party, throughout four years of your administration, to support the Federal suffrage amendment looking toward the enfranchisement of all the women of the country."

"Throughout those states, and particularly in California, which until now decided the election by the votes of women, the women voters were urged to support you even though Judge Hughes had already declared for the Federal suffrage amendment that it was your duty and your right through liberal leadership were more likely nationally to enfranchise the rest of the women of the country than were your opponents. And the women of the country, who were re-elected, urged me in them I would spend all my energy, at any sacrifice to myself, to get the present Democratic administration to pass the Federal suffrage amendment.

"But the present policy of the administration, in permitting splendid American women to be sent to jail in Washington for carrying offensive banners, not for carrying political signs, or for obstructing traffic, is a denial even of their constitutional right to petition for and demand the passage of the Federal suffrage amendment. It therefore now becomes my profound obligation to have with evasion by successive Congresses, and with the support of the Senate, the first to comprehend and forgive their inevitable impatience and righteous indignation. Will not this administration, re-elected to power, hope to fail in the judgment of the world, handsomely reward that faith by taking action now for the passage of the Federal suffrage amendment?"

"In more than twenty states it is a practical impossibility to amend the State constitution. In the remaining states the States can only be enfranchised by the passage of the Federal suffrage amendment. Since England and Russia, in the midst of the great war, have assumed the rôle of the emancipators of women, it should not be jealous to maintain our democratic leadership in the world by the speedy national enfranchisement of American women."

"Dear Mr. President, as I urged upon you in Washington two months ago, this is not only a measure of justice and democracy; it is also an urgent war measure. The women of the nation are, and always have been, the chief force in the cause of the suffrage amendment; it is only the first step toward their national enfranchisement. But unless the government takes at least this first step toward their enfranchisement, it can only be through shadowy devotion. It is no small sacrifice now for me, as a member of your administration, to sever our political relationship. But I think it is high time that we, in our party, at least, take this political leisure time to fight as hard for the political freedom of women as I have always fought for your liberal leadership."

REGRETS SEVERANCE.

"It seems to me, Mr. President, that since I first campaigned with you when you were running for Governor of New Jersey. In every circumstance throughout those years I have served you with the most perfect devotion. The chancery of the state department is, it is said, the state department's action in making public the discovery of Stockholm's duplicity this afternoon leads to the belief that the government has a well-defined plan of action mapped out."

The state department's announcement this afternoon was immediately sent to the Swedish legation. Minister W. A. F. Ekengren of the Swedish legation here is "out of town on a three weeks' leave and cannot be located," according to a statement made at the embassy this afternoon. No one at the legation would discuss the state department's statement.

CAMP IN STORM.

CAMP MILLS, MINNEOLA, L. I., Sept. 8.—In a heavy downpour that deluged the Hempstead Plains here, where the "rainbow division" is encamped, three batteries of the 151st Minnesota field artillery, headed by a brass band, marched into camp today and pitched their tents. Soon after followed the Nebraska hospital corps. The powerful infantry units from Ohio and Iowa are expected at any time.

WAR IN AFRICA.

HAVRE, Wednesday, Sept. 5.—The following official communication dealing with the campaign in East Africa has been issued by the Belgian war office:

"The Germans have retreated to the south bank of the Kellmbero river in East Africa before a convergent advance of Belgian and British troops."

ACE" DOWNS 12TH

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES

AFIELD, Sept. 8.—Lieutenant Raoul Lufberry of the Lafayette escadrille, downed another German plane yesterday. According to an official citation it was his twelfth victim.

STEAMER IS SUNK.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Sept. 8.—The British steamship Delphis of $273 tons, one of the White Star Line fleet has been sunk by a German submarine, according to word received today.

The sinking occurred August 15 the advices stated, some distance off the Irish Coast and while the vessel was under arm'd convoy. All the crew were saved.

CYCLIST IS HURT.

Dias D. Norman was treated at the receiving hospital today for injuries resulting from being hit by an automobile while he was riding on a motorcycle. He lives at 1402 East Thirty-third street.

AIR BOMBS SLAY.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 8.—The Vestiske Zeitung states that two persons were killed and three seriously injured in an airplane attack on the town of Tuk, on September 6.

NATIVES JOIN CELEBRATION AT CAPITAL

The Alameda county and Richmond parishes of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West began sending today delegations to the three-day Admission Day celebration at Sacramento. A big throng will leave on a special train over the Western Pacific at 9 o'clock tonight, and all seats have been taken in special trains of the Southern Pacific and Oakland and Antioch which will leave at 9:30 o'clock tonight. On Sunday morning special Southern Pacific and Oakland and Antioch trains will leave at 8:30 o'clock.

More than 3000 will represent Oakland and the other east bay communities.

The larger delegations will be sent by the parishes to an Admission Day celebration held outside of Oakland. The east bay division will be among the largest in the great parade of Monday, with E. F. Garrison as grand marshal. Among the notables from Alameda county will be Past Grand Presidents R. M. Fitzgerald and Joseph R. Kinlaw, Grand Trustees William J. Hayes and Harry G. Williams and many others.

Among the east bay parishes to be represented with large delegations are Athens, Bay View, Fremont, Berkeley, El Cerrito, Brooklyn, Alameda, Alhambra, Piedmont, Oakland, Eden, Estudillo and Richmond and all of the Native Daughter parishes. The general committee of the east bay parishes consists of E. F. Garrison, chairman, J. J. Mulgrew, vice-chairman; A. R. Larsen, treasurer, and G. H. Sackett, secretary. All details have been carefully completed, and the natives will spend three big days at Sacramento.

CAPITOL CITY READY. SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8.—We are prepared for the General Admission Day Committee in charge of the state-wide Native Son and Daughter celebration, which opened in the Capital City to-day. For more than twelve months the Native Sons and Daughters of Sacramento county have been preparing for the last general gathering of the Native Sons ordered by the Grand Parlor to take place in the Capital City. We feel the honor that has been shown us and we are ready to prove to all our brothers and sisters and their many friends who will uphold the wonderful record for hospitality which California is noted for in all parts of the world.

Every hall and hotel lobby in Sacramento has been rented to local and visiting Native Son and Daughter parishes and all of these will be thrown open to the public for public receptions, entertainment and dancing. In addition special headquarters will be maintained at the State Fair grounds and at Joyland amusement park.

Fifteen special trains in addition to all the regular local trains will arrive in the Capital City Saturday and Sunday bearing delegations of Natives and their friends from the bay cities, the Sacramento Valley and the mining districts in the mountains.

TABLET IS DEDICATED.

More than three thousand rooms have been secured in private homes to care for the overflow from the hotels and rooming houses. These have been listed by the N. S. & W. Housing Committee at reasonable prices. A fleet of automobiles will be on hand to take all visitors to their quarters free of charge. Service is the watchword of the reception committee. Every special train will be met several miles outside of the city and guide cards will be issued to visitors. Receptions will be held at all depots and there will be fifty information bureaus established throughout the city. The chief feature of opening day will be the dedication of a tablet in honor of late General A. M. Winn, founder of the Native Sons of the Golden West, and placing of the tablet in the park in Native Sons' honor. All receptions not make the attempt again.

WINN PARK. Sacramento, where monument to General Winn was dedicated today.

will open at noon and continue for three days. There will be special firework displays at the Fair Grounds tonight.

The Winn Park dedication exercises at Twenty-eighth and P streets, this afternoon, will be as follows:

Introductory remarks, Clarence N. Herndon, Chairman of the Day; Invocation, Joe V. Snyder, Grand President N. S. G. W.; vocal solo, "I Love You California," Miss Lena Fraze; address, Lewis F. Byington, Past Grand President N. S. G. W. San Francisco; music by the band; presentation address, Joseph R. Kinlaw, Past President N. S. G. W. Alameda; unsealing tablet, Past Grand President N. S. G. W. T. Winn, oldest living heir of General Winn; music by the band; remarks, D. W. Carmichael, President of the City Commission; vocal solo, "Star Spangled Banner"; Miss Lena Fraze, "America"; flag raising by Adele and Jane Winn, daughters of W. W. Winn of Sausalito, who are the youngest descendants of General Winn.

PARADE CHIEF FEATURE. Tomorrow there will be a band concert at the State Fair, Native Sons baseball championship game at Buffalo Park and picnic and swimming championship contest at Joyland. There will be fireworks again at night.

The chief feature of the three day celebration will be the street parade on Monday. The Native Sons declare it will be the greatest spectacle of its kind ever seen in California.

The members of the General Committee in charge of the big festival are: H. E. Yardley, chairman; Frank E. Michel, Jr., vice-chairman; A. W. Katzenstein, secretary; Frank Conn, treasurer; H. G. Dowdall, chairman of publicity; H. J. Thiel, chairman of hall and housing; Frank Michel, chairman of music; Dr. Barnard, chairman of parade; Frank Conn, chairman of transportation; Ed. Krause, chairman of decoration; A. H. McCambridge, chairman of C. N. Herndon, chairman of reception; C. N. Herndon, Roy Roth, Scott Morris, C. W. Johnson, L. J. Leonard, C. E. Mahan, H. B. Bradford, Fred Boltano, L. P. Ferron, A. Elliott, H. Mier, W. T. Bach, Chas. Graham.

FICKERT RECALL WRIT IS OPPOSED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The argument on the petition of District Attorney Charles M. Fickert for writ of injunction and prohibition to prevent the registrar of elections from either certifying the recall petition or calling a special election will continue before Judge George Van Nostrand today and Tuesday. Fickert is not entitled to either writ, according to Attorney Thomas B. Thoboy, who is opposing the writ for the board of election commissioners. The attorney said this morning:

"It is not legal for Fickert to prevent such certification. He cannot prevent the election which the requisite number of names appearing call for."

JUMPS INTO LAKE

Charles Recasso, a teamster, 23 years old, attempted suicide late yesterday by jumping into Lake Merritt. Boatmen from the municipal boat house rowed to his rescue and despite the floundering man's efforts to prevent being saved, he was overpowered and taken to the Emergency Hospital where he announced that he would not make the attempt again.

ASK THE TRIBUNE

POLICE BAR RENEWAL OF STRIKE RIOT

TRIBUNE BUREAU

SAFETY MARKET ST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—That drastic strike will be taken at once to curb further strike rioting, the means to be used will go so far as to throw the whole San Francisco police force into the strike zone if necessary, was announced today by Theodore Roche, head of the police commission.

Roche has called 200 special policemen to duty, these to take the places on beats of regular policemen to free them for strike duty. If that is not enough, the police commissioner says he will draw on the 1200 men in San Francisco wearing special policeman's badges to take all beats and release the entire police regular force of 942 men for handling the strike.

charges made yesterday by William

Von Puhl, manager of the United

Railroads, who declared that strikers were being treated more leniently on arrest than employees of the company.

DENIES LAXITY.

Roche denies laxity on the part of the police, but states that extraordinary measures will be taken from now on to restore order.

Throughout this morning automobiles loaded of police and detectives were speeding along the streets in the Mission district, a section of workingmen's homes, where the worst rioting has continued since the strike started.

The police in the machines broke up all groups of men that gathered and kept the streets practically cleared of strikers and strike sympathizers, with the result that no violence or disorder took place.

Funeral services were held today, attended by officials of the United

Railroads, for C. D. Bond, division superintendent for the company in the Mission district, whose death from heart trouble was hastened, according to to physicians, by overexertion and anxiety in connection with strike troubles in his district.

A little old woman today called on Jesse W. Ellenthal, president of the United Railroads, to warn him that she had overheard a plot to murder him. Ellenthal stated that he would disregard the plot as he had paid no attention to scores of threatening letters sent him since the strike started.

TWO NEAR DEATH.

At the request of Mayor James

Rolph, the police commissioners this morning gave instructions for redoubled efforts on the part of patrolmen to prevent attacks of strikers and sympathizers on the cars of the United Railroads. Yesterday's disorders reached the highest mark since the beginning of the strike and gave the situation a most discouraging aspect. Eleven employees of the United Railroads were injured during the two or three so severely that they may never recover.

William Spilman, a motorman of 1653 Haight street, who has been on strike until yesterday, when he went back to work, was attacked by a seven men as he was standing in a candy store on Divisadero street. An ax

TONIGHT IS LAST FOR DISTILLERIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Whiskey making in the United States ends legally at 11 o'clock tonight.

But whiskey drinking does not end. There were 232,404,570 gallons of it stored in warehouses at the last report, not to mention supplies in saloons, wholesale liquor stores and with licensed liquor dealers. This supply will last several years.

While the food control law under which John Barleycorn is knocked out is effective for the duration of the war, prohibitionists declare, whiskey making will never be known again in this country. They are confident that with the experience gained from the present war experiment nation-wide prohibition will soon be adopted by federal constitutional amendment.

John made a hard fight in Congress before the knockout was administered in Section 16 of the food control law. Herbert Hoover counted John out in order to save about 40,000,000 bushels of foodstuffs to fight the war.

FATE IS PROBLEM.

What will happen to whiskey distilleries is problematical. Some have already announced their plan to go out of business, others plan to continue making alcohol for industrial purposes. Many may enter other lines— even making malted milk.

The law prohibits the making of distilled spirits for beverage purposes. Straight alcohol and denatured alcohol may continue to be manufactured. There are about 700 plants equipped for making alcohol in this country. Only about 600, however, actually have been making whiskey.

Hoover's order stops all processes in the production of whiskey at 11 p. m. "The use of foods, fruits and food materials or feeds may not even be initiated unless the entire process may be fully completed prior to 11 p. m." his order

GIVES NO GRACE.

He did not give John Barleycorn a single moment's grace. While 30 days from date of approval of the law—August 16—would be tomorrow, Sunday, Hoover fixed the hour of John's demise at 11 p. m. to-night because the internal revenue laws prevent the operation of distilleries between 11 Saturday night and 11 following Monday morning.

Two other "dry" provisions in the food bill have not yet been acted upon by Hoover. One gives the President the right to commandeer any or all distilled spirits if necessary for redistillation and use in munitions making or other military purposes. The other empowers the President to limit, regulate or prohibit the use of foodstuffs which begin with 40 PER CENT USED.

Of the 100,000,000 bushels of grain, or thereabouts, which goes into the distilleries each year, about forty per cent experts estimate, comes out in the form of whiskey and other distilled beverages. The remainder, made into alcohol of exactly the same characteristics as that used for whiskey, eventually finds its way into perfumes, toilet waters, bay rum, medicines and into innumerable whiskeys denatured alcohol is used in ever increasing quantities.

Approximately 116,000,000 gallons of whiskey are produced each year by American distilleries. Production of alcohol by the same distilleries for commercial and medicinal uses other than beverages approximates 140,000,000 gallons. The manufacture of alcohol for the latter purpose will continue as usual, probably in greater volume, and few of the larger distilleries, if any, will have to shut down, according to government authorities.

The class of distilleries which will be put out of business is composed almost wholly of small plants operated by from one man to half a dozen men located in California, Ohio and New Jersey and producing brandy from grapes, apples and peaches. These produce approximately 2,000,000 gallons a year. Those in New Jersey and Ohio, officials believe, will suspend business. Those in California, it is thought, will continue to operate in part, for the manufacture of spirits for fortifying sweet wine.

WILL MEAN INCREASE.

Stopping whiskey manufacture, instead of curtailing the government's revenues, will increase them for the next two years, officials believe. Coupled with the pending revenue bill, the withdrawal of whiskey from bond will probably treble the revenues within the next twelve months, as the present law imposes a tax of $100, and the revenue bill contemplates a tax of $40 a gallon. A stock of approximately 250,000,000 gallons has accumulated in the bonded warehouses and on the shelves of wholesale and retail liquor dealers. Approximately 150,000,000 gallons are in warehouses and upon that quantity the government will collect taxes upon alcohol for commercial purposes, except alcohol for denaturation, the revenue bill would impose a tax of $20, doubling the present income.

There are approximately 700 distilleries in the country, of which more than half are small fruit brandy plants. The amount of capital invested in the latter class is not great in the aggregate. The capital invested in the big producing plants mounts high into the millions. Officially, however, it is not known that these wiped out the smaller distilleries will claim for products already manufactured. In the opinion of some officials whiskey will be sold at $15 a gallon within twelve months, according distillers enormous profits.

A tremendous growth in the use of commercial alcohol is anticipated which in time may result in the demand for a quantity of alcohol at least as large as the present output for all purposes.

MISSING RIDDLE PROVES RIDDLE TO ATTORNEYS

Whatever became of the Riddle?

Originally from Pennsylvania, Dr. J. R. Riddle came to Oakland many, many years ago and married Miss Annie L. McGraw in 1873 at the home of her parents—addresses unknown. After that no one knows what became of them.

In Riddle's native state there is an estate ready for settlement. Part or all of it belongs to the Riddles. According to Clarence L. Higgins, an attorney of Greensburg, Pa., rumor had it that both of the Riddles died, but that children survived them.

If any of the children are informed of their good fortune it is probable that a prompt solution of the high cost of living will have been sought about. Communication should be made with J. P. Wohlbom, 2828 Twelfth avenue, Merritt 13-31, or the Pennsylvania attorney.

"Spirit Control" Case Brings Counter Charge From Medium

Complaint Filed by Rancher That He Lost $131,513 in Mines Denied

Counter-charges of an alleged conspiracy to bankrupt a mining venture for personal profit of attempted fraud, misrepresentation and false allegation are made today by Alra E. Mecum, stockholder and header, 615 K-10th first street, in answer to a suit filed against her in San Francisco yesterday by Henry H. Schmidt, a British Columbia teacher for recovery of a fortune of $131,514, which he claims he threw away under "spirit control."

According to Schmidt's complaint he invested the money for which he invested in the Trinity Asbestos Mining company in various sums ranging from $500 to $17,516, over a period from October, 1912, to January, 1916. The money went to development of asbestos mining properties controlled by the company of which Alra Miller, Horace T. Aicum, her son-in-law and a mining engineer, Edith Black Mecum, a daughter, Orra Miller, a son, and Oslo L. Goodhue, a son by a previous marriage, were the principal stockholders.

State writing, dead financiers who handled out ghostly advice, mysterious messages out of the ether and all of the alleged paraphernalia of the occult was used by Mrs. Miller to induce him to make the investments, according to Schmidt. WAR TOPICS FOR CHURCH SERVICE

"Religion of Joy" Is the Topic Rabbi Points to Happiness

"What Kind of Civilization After the War" will be the subject of Rev. Frank M. Silsley's sermon at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, September 10. He will discuss the question whether post bellum civilization will be in character, spotted or clear; selfish or brotherly; militaristic in ideal, or Christian and peaceful. He will also discuss the question whether the war will be widely or restrained.

In the morning Dr. Silsley will speak on the subject, that has been greatly revived by the trench warfare in Europe. The question is, "What kind of civilization is to come?" "Is a Man Die Shall He Live Again?" or the question of the immortality of human life. Clarence Eddy, the organist, and the quartet will give a special program, and will be joined by the Cochrane on the violin, who will also play at the morning services. Dr. Silsley's sermons are drawing large congregations both morning and night.

PLANS PROGRAM

Next Thursday evening Charles Greenwood will render an unusual program on the spiritual and moral Pioneer Church (South). He will be joined by some of the best vocal talent in Oakland.

An old fashioned house warming was held in the new church this week and all the members and their friends were invited. The program, which informed us most enjoyable and was followed by refreshments.

Rev. Goveite reports that the building is complete and arrangements for the dedication of a new church in San Francisco, in the heart of the hotel district. Bids already have been submitted and the entire investment will be about $50,000.

SEXTON VISITOR

E. D. Sexton of Los Angeles will speak at the First Sunday evening service at 7:45 o'clock in 100, 000 seat building, Eleventh and Franklin streets. The subject announced is "Babylon Falling." This is the second lecture of a series on "The War and Civilization" which is known on the Pacific Coast as well as at other points throughout the United States. Even Europe has had the privilege of hearing Sexton. He is said to be an excellent speaker and his personality is complete. This lecture is under the auspices of the Associated Bible Students. It is free to the public and no collection will be taken.

MINISTERS MEET

Wednesday, the Episcopal ministers of the convocation of Oakland assembled at St. Andrew's church to meet the Bishop of California, to compare notes for the ministry of the church which comes to this State September 23 to October 6. Luncheon was served by the Ladies' Guild at St. Andrews.

There will be special services during the first week in the various churches. The hours and places of services, the speakers and so on, will be announced later.

TROOP IS FORMED

The boys of Fruitvale Congregational Church to the number of fourteen have enrolled in a Boy Scout troop under the leadership of Dr. C. Emmett Clark. They expect soon to join their two quota of the national organization.

Mrs. Clark, wife of the pastor, will entertain members of the Kappa Kappa Delta sorority at her residence next Tuesday evening.

"Religion of Joy" Is the Topic Rabbi Points to Happiness

"The Religion of Optimism and Joy" was the topic of the discourse this morning at Temple Sinai, when Rabbi Harvey F. Freedman, rabbi of the Congregation, spoke of the meaning of the Hebrew Congregation's belief in God. He will discuss the question whether post bellum civilization will be in character, spotted or clear; selfish or brotherly; militaristic in ideal, or Christian and peaceful. He will also discuss the question whether the war will be widely or restrained.

In the morning Dr. Silsley will speak on the subject, that has been greatly revived by the trench warfare in Europe. The question is, "What kind of civilization is to come?" Dr. Silsley's sermons are drawing large congregations both morning and night.

ANALYZES JOY.
With thanksgiving and rejoicing in his own church, Pastor Silsley referred it to surrounding creation. Here we have the first achievement of the religion of joy. Like sees like, so that the good spirit in the act of God finds its echo in the act of man. "The world is God's temple, the heavens rejoice and the earth is glad;" The Lord reigneth, let the earth rejoice.

LABOR REBUKES DISLOYALTY.

Labor and democracy went on record in an emphatic manner at the Minneapolis convention of the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy when it was formally resolved that "to win the war we must realize, in the words of President Wilson, it is not an army we must shape and train for war, but a nation," and

"Nothing less than the united loyal service of every useful hand and mind and the loyal support of every honest heart is required for the proper accomplishment of the aims of democracy."

The delegates to this conference found that no nation in history had ever revealed with such definiteness, clarity and candor its war aims as those of America have been described by the President. This statement, true to every syllable, is an answer from American patriots to those "pacifists" and enemy agitators who have been working to create dissension by demanding a statement of war aims.

A notable incident of the Minneapolis conference was the strong condemnation of anti-Americanism voiced by Mr. Charles Edward Russell and Mr. John Spargo, distinguished members of the Socialist party in the United States. It was Mr.
Russell, who was a member of the Root mission to Russia, who declared:

"Riga was captured by United States Senators La Follette, Gronna and Stone. When the kaiser gives out the declaration of victory, he should give full credit to these three men. They and the People's Council are doing more to prolong the war and to slaughter American soldiers than all the soldiers of the kaiser."

The proceedings of this convention and the sudden activity of the federal government in suppressing sedition are very important episodes in the war. Both will be recorded as victories for the nation.

Already salutary results have been observed.
Dr. David Starr Jordan and former Senator John D. Works have publicly announced their withdrawal from the People's Council. It was such men as these, having been once honored by their fellow citizens, who gave the cloak of respectability to activities calculated to cheer the kaiser's government. The most charitable thing that may be said of them is that they engaged in the propaganda without investigating its backers and unthinking of the inevitable consequence, but even that is a severe strain upon the imagination. They preferred to be known in connection with the agitation for a referendum of war declarations and in giving aid to violators of the selective draft law, but they did not shrink from giving aid to all the other aims of the council—to the weakening of their own government's hands.

Dr. Jordan was treasurer of the council and permitted his name to be used on appeals sent out to American citizens for money with which to conduct its propaganda. In withdrawing he had the effrontery to praise the work of his colleagues, and Senator Works has been content merely to explain that the council's aims "were not broad enough."

It is the nature of men who become careless in their mental and moral functioning to seek cover when they foresee the penalties of their deeds.
Hence the ranks of anti-government organizations will soon be considerably depleted.

CHEERING UP THE KAISER.

Former Ambassador Gerard may be realizing a snug income from the articles and book he is writing concerning his experiences in Berlin, but he is not adding to his reputation as a diplomat.
In one of his articles he says that in the early days of the war.

"The Kaiser talked rather despondently about the war. I tried to cheer him up, saying the German troops would soon enter Paris."

Did the American people send Gerard to Berlin to cheer the Kaiser in his invasion of Belgium en route to Paris? But his admission in the paragraph quoted above shows little better judgment than his statement in another article when he says that on the night after he had received the German note announcing resumption of submarine ruthlessness he was taking a walk and met a friend of the Crown Princess. Says he:

"I told her of the ultimatum which I had received at 6 o'clock that evening from Zimmermann and that I was sure it meant the breaking of diplomatic relations and our departure from Germany."

Thus within a few hours after the receipt of the communication, and before he could have known whether it had been given to the public at Washington, Gerard was communicating the information to an individual with no official status entitling her to receive it. Upon just such information as that, fortunes have been made in the stock market.

Gerard's confessions are not likely to add to the lustre of American diplomacy.

STILL WAITING FOR THE NAME.

One day has gone by and Mayor Davie has not performed his official duty of making public the name of the person who came to him offering money for privilege to the gamblers to operate in Oakland.

Duty and justice demand that this person be exposed and punished, Mr. Mayor.

"BRAVE HEARTS AND GOOD LUCK."

Oakland sends away tonight her first quota of the new national army. The men whom we bid good-by tonight are those selected by the national government to bear the honor and privilege of defending their country against a powerful European aggressor.

In these men repose our trust and our hopes.
May they always play a man's part, facing the foe gallantly and with the deathless determination that his foul hand shall never soil the free land of America.

When on the battlefield, surrounded by the frenzy and tumult of conflict, may they look into the face of Him who leads and know the happiness of being right, and feel the strength of an avenger of His broken commandments.

THE FRENCH LIBRARY.

Dedication of the new library of French thought of the University of California was noteworthy for several reasons. It is one of the most extensive in the West and has been greatly enriched by the addition of the several thousand volumes which formed a part of the French exhibit at the international exposition of 1915. It was a fitting manner of celebrating the anniversary of the birth of Lafayette, one of the most illustrious heroes of democracy and it provided an opportunity for the members of the distinguished French commission now visiting California to participate in an event in the educational life of the State.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 8, 1917.

PHONES TO RING, NEWSPAPER DAY PLEA

NEW DETAIL PLANNED TO HELP DRIVE

MRS. JOSEPH F. CARLSTON, member of the telephone committee for Red Cross Newspaper Day, September 15.

Every newspaper reader in Oakland will know that their services are required on September 15, when committees representing the local chapter of Red Cross and of the County Anti-Tuberculosis Society make a drive through the city for $10,000 worth of old journals. Newspaper day, first conceived and organized by the women's committee, National and State Defense, has become a subject of wide publicity, according to workers, and that Oakland will respond in liberal manner is taken for granted by the men and women organizing their efforts for the big day's work.

To make sure that every Oakland precinct will have full knowledge of the day, Mrs. Frank G. Law, third vice-president of the women's committee, Council of Defense, and Mrs. Charles D. Haines have begun an extensive organizing campaign, in which every city voting unit is notified of their responsibility. In these precinct committees will be appointed.

WANT AUTOMOBILES

Miss Ruth Scheutze has been appointed to secure automobiles from the women's committee members themselves. Mrs. John McFarland will work among the various orders of the Eastern Star, urging the Masonic women to save old newspapers and have them ready for the automobile couriers September 15. A committee of attractive young women is in course of organization by Miss Gladys Robinson, who plans that they distribute leaflets in banks and department stores, announcing Newspaper day, and telling patrons of its importance.

In addition to this work among all of the various groups, districts and neighborhoods, an endless chain scheme has been formulated by Mrs. A. E. Carter in which plans for telephoning publicity are complete. A certain group of enthusiastic women will each telephone five friends, giving them the date and all instructions regarding Newspaper day. These five individual friends will in turn be requested to inform five other friends, and so on until many thousand families have been reached.

A meeting extracurricular will be held Monday by the women's committee, National and State Defense, to further plans for Newspaper day. Those meeting include the following: Miss Eva Powell, Mrs. J. A. Vandegrift, Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook, Mrs. Edgar L. Ormsby, Mrs. Oscar Long, Mrs. A. M. Beebe, Mrs. Theo Schubert, Mrs. J. W. Burrows, Mrs. Helen Artieda, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Charles D. Haines, Mrs. John McFarland.

Officers of the women's committee include: President, Mrs. A. E. Carter; first vice-president, Miss Ethel Moore; second vice-president, Miss Molle Connors; third vice-president, Mrs. Frank G. Law.

FLORISTRY ART OR A BUSINESS, PIEDMONT ASKS

PIEDMONT, Sept. 8.—Is a florist engaged in an art or a more prosaic business, is a question which the town trustees of Piedmont are called upon to settle in considering the application of Miss Florence E. Blair for permission to open a shop to sell flowers grown on her property.

Piedmont boasts of being an exclusive residence section and does not permit a single business house in the district, but Miss Blair in her application last night declared that raising flowers was an esthetic art.

Chairman Ellsworth agreed that didn't sound like a business. The matter was referred to the City Attorney for a legal opinion.

TAX RATE IS SAME

PIEDMONT, Sept. 8.—Although extensive civic improvements have been made in Piedmont during the past year the tax rate was continued at $1.15 by the town trustees last evening.

Chairman Oliver Ellsworth of the town board explained that this rate covers the redemption of $25,000 worth of bonds.

The $1.15 rate has been in effect in Piedmont for the past two years.

FIRE PUZZLE NEW FACTOR IN SLAYING

While Mrs. Catherine Vickery is recovering at the emergency hospital from her attempt at suicide, following her successful attack upon the life of Albert Williams yesterday morning, the police are endeavoring to learn the reason for an attempt to burn her home at 1016 Fifty-ninth street. The house is owned by H. A. Pleiter, a wealthy realty man. Shortly after Mrs. Vickery set out in a taxicab on her mission of death neighbors saw smoke pouring out of the house and summoned the fire department. The flames were extinguished with slight loss, but Fire Chief Whitehead and Inspector William Kyle of the fire investigation detail, discovered that coal oil had been thrown through the house. While the place was burning Mrs. Vickery was at Twenty-eighth street and Telegraph avenue, where she met William and fired shots that caused his death.

In the meantime Henry M. Vickery, a clerk in the commissary department of the Southern Pacific, had been a witness of the fire at his home. He rushed there in an automobile, but at that time did not learn of the tragedy that his wife had enacted. Vickery and his wife were married twelve years ago. He was formerly a jockey, riding for the Tom Ryan stable at Emeryville. He stated to the police that he cannot account for his wife's interest in Williams, and said that he knew nothing of her relations with him.

Williams lived in apartments at Eleventh and Harrison streets, and was employed as a billposter by the T. H. B. Varney company.

Several days ago he applied at the office of Prosecuting Attorney Ezra Deacon for a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Vickery for alleged threats against his life. A citation was issued to the woman and she was ordered to appear at City Hall yesterday morning. Instead she took a revolver and hunted Williams. After she shot and killed him Mrs. Vickery drained a bottle of chloroform. She was treated at the emergency hospital and will recover.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Prices held steady at the opening of the stock market, after opening highest, 103%, Bethlehem "B" after opening 14% up at 104%, declined to 103%. Crucible was off 1% at 63%.

The marine issues showed slight improvement, the market settling 2% higher, 94%, while the preferred advanced 4% to 45%.

The tobacco stocks were strong, Tobacco Products selling 1% up at 74%, while United Cigar sold 1% up at 74%.

United States Paper was a strong feature, advancing to 30, a gain of 1%.

The copper issues showed slight gains.

General Motors rose two points to 86.

The market was fair, and other bonds steady.

There were many violent fluctuations in the late dealings, with most interest displayed in the dealings in General Electric.

General Electric, a gain of 14%, Bethlehem Steel "B", was under pressure, selling down three points to 100, but rallied two points net before closing at 101.

There were frequent declines and rallies in the other steel issues, but the general list had a sharp rise, the market closing 1% up at 103%.

A number of stocks showed net gains for the day. Anacoda sold at 70% net before the close.

For the day, 23,000 shares; bonds, $1,000,000; par value, $100; 103,500 shares; funds, $17,411,000.

LABOR'S AID
IN WAR TOLD
BY ENVOYSINDUSTRIAL NEWS
ITEMS OF INTEREST CONCERNING
THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE EAST BAY DISTRICT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Four members of the High French Commission were guests today at the Commonwealth Club, the Palace Hotel. Addresses were made by members of the visiting group and by several notable speakers in the local organization. Colonel James Martin of the French Four Hundred and Twelfth Regiment was the only member of the commission not present, having left last night for Denver, where he will be joined by his colleagues, who leave San Francisco tonight.

Deputy High Commissioner Lieutenant-Colonel Edouard Billy spoke to workers last night in the Labor Temple, at a reception accorded him and his fellow commissioner Lieutenant Edouard Limousin, by the San Francisco Labor Council. That the associations found in the trenches would eventually bring about better conditions for the French laboring men rather than striking methods formed the opinion of the French official. He told of the loyal way in which the French Socialists came to their government's aid when they found, several days after the declaration of war, that the German Socialists had yielded and voted unanimously for war credits.

LABOR BEHIND WILSON.

A. M. Brouillet, president of the San Francisco Labor Council, told the listeners that American labor was "pro-Wilson, pro-American and pro-Wilson."

The military men of the commission told American army officers something about the work they would be doing soon, and when a special meeting was arranged for an exchange of ideas at the Oregon Building on the exposition grounds.

"The art of war is the exercise of the greatest amount of common sense in the shortest possible time," said Lieutenant Henri le Comparsier Crequy-Montfort de Courtivron, and this phrase stuck in the minds of the officers long after the reception and lectures were over.

Colonel James Martin expressed the opinion that trench warfare, with all its terrors, prepared the way for an attacking war, would continue until the end of the war. Captain E. J. P. Rovier, however, differed from his colleague. He thought that open field fighting would occur before the war's end. Colonel Martin said that two French officers were expected in this city shortly, to aid Presidio in trench warfare training and camouflage work.

SHOWN BY EXPERIENCE.

Among the vital statements made by the French commissioners in regard to military findings of the allied powers, experience were included the following:

"One gun is in use for every meter of the western front (more than 750,000 cannon).

In fifteen days the British had used 14,000,000 shells against the Germans in a single battle on a front of about ten kilometers (6.25 miles).

Supremacy of the air is still in the balance.

Camouflage is one of the most important of modern war arts.

Grenades are used as much as rifles.

Storming a trench is the easiest part of it for the infantry. Few casualties occur then. It's the holding them that's tough.

Grenade barrages are a new development.

Casualties average 1.26 per cent in contrast to 5.41 per cent at the beginning of the war.

BIG SHIPMENT

A hundred thousand pounds of coffee were hauled in ten large motor trucks through the streets of Oakland yesterday for Long, the Coffee Man and head of Long's Market.

This large amount of coffee was shipped direct to Long from the Guatemalan coffee plantations and is far and away the largest coffee shipment ever to be received in Oakland. The ten big trucks attracted much attention and gave another proof of Oakland's rapid development. Long is the largest coffee dealer in Oakland and among the largest on the coast.

"A shipment of this size means a great deal to Oakland," Long said. "I have been a buyer of coffee in Central America for many years but have never had the opportunity to buy in big lots. My opportunity this year came as a result of the war. This shipment came direct from Guatemala to Oakland and should be a fair index of Oakland's possibilities as a shipping center."

EX-QUEEN GIVES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Liliuokalani, former Queen of Hawaii, has sent to the American Red Cross, through Governor Pukui, a contribution of $100. In a letter to the governor she said the contribution would be renewed monthly to the end of the year.

The output of an industrial plant will usually be found to bear a constant relation to the motor power installed. Along this line of thought, it is interesting to note the growth of numerous old established manufacturers in the east bay region. Stunts in financing

IT sometimes happens that careless management will allow slipshod methods to creep in—and a business rapidly drifts toward the rocks.

Suddenly it is found that more money is needed—and the bank is expected to do some financial stunt at a moment's notice to furnish badly needed funds. A financial stunt—no matter how clever—will not permanently save any business using slipshod methods and managed by careless men.

This bank endeavors to render its depositors a service in "business building" that will help in steering clear of such shoals.

SCANS LIST OF RECALL
SIGNATURES

City Clerk L. W. Cummings today commenced the work of checking over and verifying the names on the petition, filed last evening, demanding an election to decide whether Mayor John L. Davis shall be recalled. He has ten days in which to verify the petition, and has employed several deputies to assist in comparing the names with those on the great regular list and to determine whether any which appear to be suspicious may not be a bona fide character.

The petition was filed by Attorney Henry E. Skinner, representing the recall forces. It carries 6707 signatures.

The filing of the petition gives Mayor Davis and George Kaufman, his advised opponent, time to go over the names and a strenuous campaign was commenced today by the anti-recall forces to obtain enough withdrawals to make the petition invalid.

It is anticipated that every signer of the certificates which make up the instrument will be personally solicited to withdraw his name. Scores of workers are to be sent out, as Kaufman has told personal friends that he will spare no expense to beat the attempt to recall the Mayor.

PREPARE LETTER.

The executive committee of the recall campaign is preparing a letter, which will be sent to the signers of the recall petition, warning them of the recall, and attempting to make them withdraw their names. The committee, through the efficient manager and proprietor, R. G. Gardner, has traveled throughout the state, and the amount of work that is coming in to this company is the result of the reputation of Mr. Gardner, who has been connected with Government work in the same line and superintending some of the largest and most particular jobs throughout the state. He has just returned from superintending a large cutting contract at Boulder Creek, Cal., where a mill will be dismantled, the boilers and metal reclaimed. Mr. Gardner is also the chief instructor in the welding and cutting school which he has opened in connection with the regular shop work. Pupils are rapidly being turned into capable and efficient welders, through the thorough and practical courses of every step and problem of the welding, cutting and metal expansion theories and practical experience gained under supervision of instructors.

LEAGUE'S STATEMENT.

Another opponent of the committee furthering the recall of Mayor John L. Davis of Oakland appeared today in the Citizens' Anti-Recall League of Oakland, which issued a statement signed by an executive committee consisting of Norman de Veaux, W. N. Jenkins, W. G. Bitteman, O. J. Mead, Byron Rutley, R. G. Bitteman and Robert Robertson.

"This league," says the proclamation, "is organized for the purpose of stamping disapproval upon unmerited recalls. The league has not been formed for the sole purpose of defeating the present recall. The league is opposed to all recalls unless it can be shown conclusively that the city or county official under consideration has actually committed some disgraceful or criminal act."

The Mayor Davis has not performed such an act, however, thus asserted by the proclamation.

"In fairness to the present Mayor we believe that his public acts warrant a respect for him rather than a recall. While we are not standing sponsor for the present Mayor, we cannot find any charge of dishonesty or gross inefficiency against him."

Skinner will speak at Debs Hall, 1020 Broadway, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "Why Mayor John L. Davis Should Be Recalled." The meeting will be under the auspices of the Socialist party and both sides of the question will be given a hearing.

Ten deputies to assist City Clerk Cummings in verifying the signatures to the recall petition filed late yesterday against Mayor Davis, were authorized by the city council at a special meeting held this morning. The sum of $500 was appropriated to cover the expense. Work on the verification will commence Monday.
